

Canadian Country Female Artist of the Year, Crystal Shawanda hosts her annual home coming concert at her family farm during the Civic Holiday Weekend in August.

This one day event showcases emerging and local aboriginal artists in various genres of music. You are invited to visit the pride of Wikwemikong as she kicks off the Cultural Festival weekend with her unique blend of country music performed live at the home coming concert.

□